THE LAST GOOD BYE. Farewell ! Farewell ! is often heard

Farewell: 's often heard
From the lips of those who part;
'Tis a whispered tone, 'tis a gentle word.
But it springs not from the heart,
It may serve for the lover's lay.
To be sang 'neath a summer sky
But give me the lips that sa;
The honest words.' Good-bye!"

Adieu! Adieu! may greet the car In the guise of courtly speech;
But when we leave the kind and dear,
"Tis not what the soul would teach,
Whene'er we grasp the land of those
We would have forever high,
The frame of friendship burns and glows. In the warm, frank words, " Good-bye

The mother sending forth her child
To meet with cares a strife,
Breathes through her tears doubts and fear
For the loved ones future life.
No cold "adicu." no farewell lives
Within her choking sigh:
But the deepest sob of gives,
God bless the boy!—good bye!"

Go, watch the pale and dying one,
When the glance has lost its beam.
When the brow is cold as the marbleston And the world a passing dream:
And the latest pressure of the hand,
The look of the closing eye.
Yield what the heart must understand,
A long, a last "Good-bye."
